rick spreitzer

Rick writes songs of considerable depth that have garnered recognition from international publications (such as AmericanaOK, Freight Train Boogie and Americana Roots) as well as regional praise from the North Carolina Songwriter's Co-Operative, the Flat Rock Music Festival, David Childers and Michael Reno Harrell.

Whether playing duo (with longtime guitarist, Kevin Edwards), trio (adding JD Wilson on mandolin) or as a four-piece (with Angelo Melendez on bass), they present a broad palate of tunes ranging from poetic whispers to pulsing crescendos.

Previous venues, galleries and coffeeshops:

The Evening Muse * Summit Coffee * The Pewter Rose * Rodi * Green Rice Gallery
Pura Vida * Smelly Cat Cafe * Starbucks * Dilworth Coffeehouse * Hart Witzen Gallery
Dessert Plus * Julia's Coffee * Port City Java * Dilworth Playhouse Cafe * Coffee Central Queens Beans * Wine-Up * Clay on Camden * The Double Door Inn * The Visulite Theatre
The Neighborhood Theatre, The Mint Museum * Music at the Fountain * Festival in the Park
Pin Drop House Concert * Flat Rock and Art of Sound Music Festivals and more

Artist of the Month - June 2008 - K&K Sound
Album of the Month - AmericanaOK
Folk Alley Open Mic Top 10
Spotlight Album - Songriver
7th Annual North Carolina Songwriter's Co-Op Songwriter's Contest Winner
Flat Rock Music Festival's Songwriting Contest - 3rd Place 2004 and 2006. Top 10 Finalist 2005
Left of the Dial Top 10 Mid-Atlantic Releases

Radio: WNCW, WFUV, KMSU, WMPG, WSGE The Medicine Show, Americana Homeplace

Shared Stages with: Richard Buckner, Malcolm Holcombe, Rod Picott, Stephen Bruton, David Childers, Jeff Black, Kevin Gordon, Caitlin Cary & Thad Cockrell, The Austin Lounge Lizards, Peter Case, Mike Strauss, Michael Reno Harrell, Lenny Federal

contact information: rspreitzer@bellsouth.net
www.rickspreitzer.com * www.myspace.com/rickspreitzer